on a good note, judge rakoff called me a brilliant visionary and that he admires my brainpower.
the prices of drugs for many diseases, including cancer, have become extremely unaffordable for the common man in this country, which have also increased the pressures on the public health programmes.
it could be six months before we can get back into the house.