first of all adderall is not a class 2 narcotic it is a controlled substance my husband and my son was on it for years there is a big difference.

we didn't get a good result but what's important is that the match will help us improve and get in shape